

LITFIT GOLF TO EXHIBIT AT 2025 PGA SHOW IN ORLANDO, FL, JANUARY 21 - 24

Jamestown, NY – (LitFit Golf Apparel) announced plans to exhibit at the 2025 PGA Show, January 21 - 24, at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, FL.

LitFit Golf Apparel will be presenting their signature female golf one piece body suit, the SwingSuit. The Spring/Summer 2025 collection and the Classic collection will be featured.

The founder/owner Danielle Patti says, “I am looking forward to debuting this product in front of golf’s most influential retailers from around the world. Women’s golf fashion has been tailored after men’s boxy polo shirts for too long. The SwingSuit looks great on all shapes and is a comfortable, fashionable staple for female golfers. I am confident that it solves a problem that all female golfers wrestle with when dressing for the links. We are always questioning whether to tuck our shirts in or leave them out. The SwingSuit solves this issue by offering a flattering and functional alternative.”

The PGA Show, organized by Reed Exhibitions (RX) and the PGA of America, is the longest running and largest global gathering for the business of golf. PGA of America Golf Professionals and industry leaders form a dynamic international community to source and test the game’s latest innovations, learn proven business solutions from industry experts, develop skills and connections to further their career, create additional value for facilities, build their individual business and drive continued growth of the sport. The PGA Show returns to Orlando, Jan. 21-24, 2025. The event remains a trade-only event, not open to the public. Visit PGAShow.com for event details and industry-only registration.

About LitFit

The SwingSuit was designed by a female golfer tired searching for a way to free our figures from the boxy styled men’s polo shirts that have traditionally been the market standard for women.
